

Journal	Issue	Article/Comment
GhostBuster Campbelltown District Family History Society Inc.	Vol 27, No. 3 November 2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• How have you dealt with errors that other people have loaded onto the Internet? - outlines some good and not so good results from trying to correct family trees with common ancestors.• What A Poem About A Goose Teaches Us About Property - uses an analogy to talk about Enclosure Acts that formally annulled the institution of commons so that landowners could enclose the area and then use it for themselves.• Connecting With Roy - A Local Detective Story - the renaming of Hurlstone Agricultural High school to Roy Watts High school led the writer to find a family connection.
ANCES-TREE Journal of the Burwood & District Family History Group	Volume 31, No. 3 November 2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• John And Elizabeth Tyrrell - New Beginnings - a brief family history of John Tyrrell (1809-1863) and Elizabeth Tyrrell nee Howick (1821-1910). Photos from the Tyrrell family bible are used as sources.• Francesco Ghiggino And His Voyage To Australia - an interesting account of the suffering of Swiss and Italian immigrants on the ship St Ludwina on its voyage to Australia in 1855. The article also covers the Captain's responses to the allegations.• The Armistice - Records Of A First World War Soldier Charles McCulloch - the story of Charles McCulloch (1887-1917), a NSW immigrant who enlisted in 1916 as an infantryman and died during trench warfare in France.
Journal of the Moruya and District Historical Society Inc.	Volume 20, No. 4 December 2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health Care In Moruya – a comprehensive history of health care in Moruya, beginning with self care, care provided by friends and relatives, midwives, local doctors, maternity homes and cottage hospitals. Also details the profiles of individual doctors, hospital medical officers and hospital matrons that served in the Moruya area.• Boating Activities At Tuross From The Moruya Pilot Station Letters - letters from the 1860s.
The Ryde Recorder Journal & Newsletter of the Ryde Historical Society Inc. and Family History Group	Volume 52, No. 4 November 2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• I Thought It Was Just A Paddock - the story of an empty paddock in Ryde that once had a two-storey attic house called “Woodbine Cottage” standing on it.• The Legacy Of William Thompson - William Thompson (1862-1937) was a qualified surveyor and architect who became involved in the Ryde community. He was eventually elected as a Mayor of Ryde and member of the NSW Legislative Assembly. He was also a very well known Freemason.• Wharves On Parramatta River At Ryde From Wharf Road Ermington To Point Road Gladesville - history of the wharves from convict built in c1817 to upgrades completed in 2016. Well illustrated.